

10 DANIEL RAY JUDD,
11 Plaintiff,
12 v.
13 CALIFORNIA STATE,
14 Defendant.

Case No. 18-mc-80099 NC

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING FILINGS

Re: Dkt. No. 1

16 Mr. Daniel Ray Judd filed a “Public Notice” and a copy of an “International 17 Durable Power of Attorney” with the Court on June 18, 2018. The Court is unclear as to 18 what—if anything—Mr. Judd wants the Court to do with this document, or whether Mr.
19 Judd is attempting to present a case or controversy to the Court.

20 Moreover, the Court informs Mr. Judd that federal courts are courts of limited
21 jurisdiction, and may only assume jurisdiction over cases that (1) raise federal questions;
22 or (2) are before it in diversity, meaning that the parties are from different states and that 23 the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000. 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332. Mr. Judd must 24 explain to the Court what the basis is for its jurisdiction over this case.

25 In other words, the Court wants to know (1) what Mr. Judd wishes the Court to do
26 with his documents, and (2) what the basis is for the Court’s jurisdiction over this case.
27 Mr. Judd must respond to this order with an explanation by July 27, 2018.

28 The Court directs Mr. Judd to the Federal Pro Se Program, which provides free
Case No. 18-mc-80099 NC

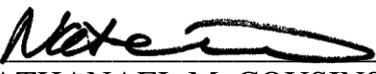

1 information and limited-scope legal advice to pro se litigants in federal civil cases. The
2 Federal Pro Se Program is located in Room 2070 of the San Jose United States
3 Courthouse, and is available by appointment Monday to Thursday 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.
4 The Program can be reached by calling (408) 297-1480.
